- If adoption is the plan for your child,
- If your child has already been placed for adoption,
- If you are related to a child who will be or has been adopted,
- Then the Independent Birth Relative Service may be able to help you.

We recognize that it is very important for you to have information about adoption, and the chance to talk about how adoption might affect you now and in the future.

We can:

- Offer you an opportunity to talk about the things that may concern you, or you would like to now more about.
- Help with discussing proposed contact with another birth relative, or other post adoption support.
- Advise of possible contribution of birth relatives to life story work.
- Listen to your feelings – these may be confusing, involving grief, loss and anger. It may not be
